Professional Overview

Brian's practice focuses on commercial litigation, with an emphasis on representation of financial institutions, securities firms, and commercial landlords. Brian has extensive experience with all aspects of bankruptcy, receiverships, insolvency, restructuring, and debtor-creditor work. Brian has also served as an adjunct professor at Seattle University teaching the Bankruptcy course.

Representative Matters

- Represent regional and national banks with lender liability claims, regulatory investigations, asset investigations, and pre-judgment and post-judgment collections.
- Represent creditors in bankruptcies, receiverships, and complex workouts.
- Represent national bank with international liquidation of aircraft collateral, including in China, the Netherlands, United Arab Emirates, Michigan, Arizona, Oregon, and Texas. Bankruptcy, probate, and related collection proceedings yielded millions in proceeds for the client.
- Represented a technology fund in connection with the provision of debtor-in-possession and exit financing for the successful Chapter 11 reorganization of Nortis, Inc. The reorganization resulted in our client owning a controlling share of the company and holding a majority of the seats on the board.
- Represented regional bank in state receivership and subsequent bankruptcy proceedings, obtaining relief from stay for one dozen properties.
- Represented bank in Chapter 11 bankruptcy for major printing company, monitoring sale of business, accounts, and real estate.
- Represented commercial landlord in unlawful detainer actions and multiple tenant bankruptcies, leading to successful re-leasing of building premises.
- Represent receiver in multiple actions across Washington State, assisting with all aspects of the management and sale of real estate.

- Represented a major national bank in a multi-billion dollar class action related to the sale of mortgage-backed securities.
- Represent multiple financial services firms before state and federal courts and FINRA and NYSE arbitration panels.
- Recovered nearly one million dollars of secreted assets from real estate and securities sales for judgment creditor.
- Represented developer in successful arbitration related to the dissolution and windup of multi-million dollar construction business.
- Represented numerous landowners in cost recovery actions under state and federal environmental statutes.
- Represented national employer in a class action wage and hour lawsuit.
- Represented prevailing party in trust litigation regarding control of a major Northwest religious organization.
