

Daniel M. Goodrich

daniel.goodrich@hcmp.com

direct: 206.470.7663

fax: 206.623.7789

Professional Overview

Daniel provides counsel on business transactions and estate planning. Daniel's work includes mergers and acquisitions, business entity formation, and general business and tax matters. Prior to joining Hillis Clark Martin & Peterson, Daniel worked in the international tax group of a Big Four professional services firm.

Representative Matters

- Advised multinational companies on the U.S. and foreign tax consequences of foreign acquisitions and internal restructurings, focusing on the technology industry.
- Advised multinational companies on possible restructuring options in light of changes in international tax law.

Professional and Civic Involvement

- Treasurer, Board of Directors, Pacific MusicWorks, 2016 - present
- Washington State Bar Association
Taxation Section
- American Bar Association
- Guest Lecturer, University of Washington Graduate Program in Taxation

Honors / Awards / Prior Experience

- Repeatedly recognized by Best Lawyers in America[®]: Ones to Watch in the field of Tax Law, most recently for 2022.

- University of Washington School of Law, Low Income Federal Tax Clinic.
- Extern to the Honorable J. Robin Hunt, Washington State Court of Appeals, Division II, 2011.

Education

- J.D., LL.M. (Taxation), University of Washington School of Law, 2014
- M.M., Northwestern University, Bienen School of Music, Music Performance, 2010
- B.M. University of Puget Sound, summa cum laude, Honors Music Education, 2009

Bar/Court Admissions

Washington State

Personal

I enjoy playing the saxophone, and attending the symphony and local jazz shows. I am a lifelong Seattle sports fan, and above all a dedicated Mariners fan. I also try to make time to read, fish, and enjoy the beautiful Pacific Northwest summers on the golf course.