

Jesse Johnson

jesse.johnson@hcmp.com

direct: 206-470-7675

fax:

Professional Overview

Jesse assists clients with a range of complex real estate transactions, including drafting purchase and sale agreements, leases, easements, CC&Rs, and entity formation and governance. Jesse's clients include for-profit developers, nonprofit developers, community land trusts, health care institutions, and real estate joint ventures. Jesse's pragmatic, detail-oriented approach delivers effective legal solutions to address the specific needs of his clients.

Jesse is also a novelist and visual poet. He is the author of the novels Yearbook and The King of Nothing Much, both published by Paul Dry Books.

Education

- J.D., University of Washington School of Law, 2023
- Ph.D., English, University of California, Los Angeles
- B.A., University of California, Berkeley

Personal

Jesse enjoys spending time outdoors with his wife and two children. His interests include camping, hiking, mountain biking, CrossFit, chess, and guitar.

Languages

- Spanish (fluent)
- French (conversational)

Hillis
Clark
Martin &
Peterson P.S.

- Mandarin Chinese (basic knowledge)