

Mergers & Acquisitions

HCMP represents a wide range of public and privately-held corporations, limited liability companies, partnerships, and individuals in connection with the structuring, negotiation and documentation of mergers and acquisitions and other business restructurings. Our team recognizes that no two deals are the same, so we provide counsel based on the unique considerations at play as you buy, sell, or restructure your business. Our experience ranges from the purchase and sale of small home businesses to the restructuring of multinational corporations. This depth of experience means we can assist you with every aspect of your deal, from early strategic considerations through closing and any post-transaction issues.

Our practice spans a broad spectrum of industries, including energy, private equity, shipping, construction, real estate, manufacturing, media, technology and retail. HCMP's depth of experience means that we can help you craft creative solutions unique to the complexities and nuances of your industry.

Our mergers and acquisitions work includes analysis of the tax consequences of proposed transactions, as well as compliance with securities, antitrust, and other applicable laws and regulations. We also coordinate the governmental approval process and the preparation of required administrative filings to make the process as simple and straightforward as possible for you so that you can focus on running your business.
