

Outside General Counsel

Your outside resource for conquering legal challenges in an ever-changing business world.

Companies of all sizes experience legal challenges. However, not every company has the resources to hire a full-time in-house lawyer to safely navigate those challenges. HCMP's Outside General Counsel ("OGC") services provides the legal support businesses need to manage and minimize risk, optimize operations, and capitalize on opportunities so that your team can focus on what matters most to you: reaching your business goals. In our role as OGC, we partner with clients to understand their company, serve as trusted advisors, and deliver tailored solutions to the unique legal issues they face.
